

Launching into your future!

October 8 – 11, 2015

#1

The 2015 Investor Quick Start Intensive is for you if:

- You're just getting started
- You're coming back to real estate
- You've been investing for a while
- A seasoned professional

Ok, you caught me; it's for everyone, seriously.

I've been wondering how to use my real estate success to get you off the launch pad and catapult you into your dreams. Or get you into a safe orbit away from comets and other flying objects.

Unfortunately just like the 'The Big Bang Theory' I've seen people filled with so many shiny objects they explode. They're still floating around lost – never to touchdown.

If I could teach you how to avoid the same 'Big Bang' explosion, that is guaranteed to suck money right out of your pockets, wouldn't you?

That's why; I wanted to make sure you saw this:

I'm preparing to spend four days, teaching, showing, explaining, and preparing you for liftoff. After four days, your spacecraft (you) will be fueled and ready to reach the 'mission' goals that you've set.

The real estate market is ever changing and having a mentor is the only way to go. Without a mentor, you're like an untethered space module, drifting and floating in space.

Not only does this work, but I also have hundreds of students who have followed me and realized their dreams, gained confidence, and control of their life.

We've already filled $\frac{3}{4}$ of the room, even without any promotion. That means there are only 22 seats left!

If you're really serious about your future, then this is the ideal next step.

So get it now while you can:

Use the PROMO code – LAUNCH to get special pricing.

LAUNCH

October 8-11, 2015

Did you see the email about the upcoming 2015 Quick Start Intensive? Check this out.....

I often get these questions: "Augie, how have you been so successful in real estate when so many others have fallen by the wayside? How do you stay ahead in this crazy real estate market? How have you dodged so many bullets?"

I guess I'd have to say its experience and finding seasoned mentors that have guided me along the way. Experience is a wise, painful, and extremely valuable teacher.

One of the life principles I've discovered is how to extract lessons from the 'expensive experiences' of others. You can learn from your own mistakes or better yet, you can learn from the mistakes of others. Life is much easier and less painful when you follow in the footsteps of the successful person who has navigated those roads before you.

If you're committed to being successful in the Central Florida real estate market, and I'm guessing you do, then this is the ideal next step.

Don't forget to use the special discount code - LAUNCH

At the upcoming Quick Start Intensive 2015, you will learn from me:

- The insider secrets to spotting and creating win-win deals out of thin air, that the uninformed will just flat out miss,
- Learn the secrets banks don't want you to know that are perfectly legal,
- Find out how to buy and sell real estate without cash or credit, that stops most people
- Master the skills needed to create unlimited possibilities to grow your business,

And it'll give you the momentum and confidence to build the economic future of your dreams.

To make it even easier for you, I'm including:

- 100+ page Quick Start Investor Manual for quick reference and note taking
- Audio recordings of the event to reinforce all that you've learned
- 4 Days of High Impact Networking with other investors who are looking for partners just like you
- Complete Forms Package giving you instant authority and maximum confidence

Hi,

Wow, I knew people would be excited when I announced my Quick Start Intensive 2015, for a live 4-day coaching series by me, but I had no idea....

We designed the program for a small group, 70 people, and instantly 48 people signed up.

Real estate investors have been asking me to share my winning strategies and forms for a long time, but I just don't have time. I wanted to put together a workshop that would provide huge value, information, and killer strategies that have worked for me, at an affordable price and delivered by me.

It's finally done. So, before it's sold out, you need to take advantage of this opportunity to be one of the 70 real estate investors who learn from Central Florida's Transaction Engineer (who learned from the masters).

Quick Start Intensive 2015 starts Thursday, October 8, 2015 and runs through Sunday, October 11, 2015 and each participant will get live and individualized attention from me.

Are you tired of dealing with real estate investor hype?

You aren't alone. Many people end up frustrated when trying to create a sustainable living in this market because they're using methods that just don't cut it.

Can you answer yes to any of these?

1. Not enough leads
2. Not sure what to say to a seller
3. Fear of looking foolish
4. Don't know enough about business

5. Not sure how to structure a deal
6. Confused by all there is to learn
7. Too busy, no time
8. Don't have money to lose
9. Your friends think you're crazy trying this

New and even long-time investors would answer 'yes' to many of those concerns. You end up stuck, on the sidelines watching, wishing that you could put together just ONE deal.

Just one good deal would give you the confidence to show your friends and family that you have made the right choice. You can do this!

And you have launched your dreams. This is what you're supposed to be doing.

The Quick Start Intensive 2015 will be life changing for the 70 people who attend. This training is all about getting you to your destination and it starts when you invest in your future. Knowledge removes barriers and fears and opens doors that you couldn't see before.

[Quick Start Intensive 2015] Frankly I'm disappointed

[Quick Start Intensive 2015] Tic Toc

[Quick Start Intensive 2015] I'm surprised

It's true. This very well could be your last chance to get your seat at the Quick Start Intensive 2015, time is running out, and so are the seats.

I checked the list, and I didn't see your name. I'm surprised that you haven't signed up yet. I thought you'd be there.

I've packed proven step-by-step instructions in these four days that can make or break your business.

If you're looking for college-level education (without the pain of going to college), that'll give you the competitive advantage over the other real estate wannabes in town, then you had better take action now.

This is your premier event of the year dedicated to wrapping up this year and launching you into 2016 with all the best resources that you'll need - bundled into one event.

Yes, I've even planned a bonus for you.... this will save you time, and I know how precious time is for you.

Bonus:

To make it even better, I've lined up the best people to support you. The names are secret for now, but they'll provide the following:

- Financing
- Renovations
- Title and closing services
- Marketing Support
- Trust Services
- IRA services

.....We are going to take off the gloves and hit you with all the information you need to put everything else you know into one little neat package and fill in the blanks for those missing pieces.This will be your 'ah-ha' moment when your business will turn the corner.
